BLESSINGS AND WOES

Today we hear once again of the deep connection between Jesus and Israel’s prophets. In the reading from Jeremiah, God’s curses at the opening are counterbalanced by God’s blessings in the second part. In Luke’s version of the Beatitudes, Jesus begins with blessings, then counterbalances with a “woe” section. The point is clear: the way we live our lives has a direct connection to whether we will experience curses and woes, or blessings instead. Of course, being among God’s blessed ones (in Latin, beati, from which “beatitudes” comes) doesn’t necessarily mean a life free of woe. Jesus, in his fully human nature, knew this. He also knew that when we seek happiness through our own devices, and trust only in ourselves, the woes are guaranteed to come. Let us follow the wisdom of Jeremiah and Jesus, along with the opening of the book of Psalms (echoed by Jeremiah today): “blessed are the ones who trust in the Lord.”

I DON’T KNOW

There are times when the smartest, but most difficult, thing we can say is, “I don’t know.” While we often think of this as a sign of weakness, the amount of humility it takes to say this means that the word of God is alive and well in us. To say “I don’t know” means that we look outside of ourselves to learn, and to find those who do know, and—ultimately—accept that we have to look to others and to God to help us, to guide us through life. To place our trust and hope only in this world, Paul tells the Corinthians (and us!), makes us people to be pitied. Jesus echoes this in the “woes” section of Luke’s Beatitudes, when he points out that trusting in earthly wealth, full bellies, entertainments, and reputation will, eventually, not be enough when we are called beyond this life.

LOOK ’EM IN THE EYE

Prior to delivering the blessings and woes of his “Sermon on the Plain” in Luke, Jesus had been on top of a mountain in prayer, after which he selected the Twelve to go on his mission with him. Coming down from the mountain, the first thing Jesus does is show them what is at the heart of his—and their—mission: preaching to the multitude, healing all who were in need of it, no matter where they had come from. Luke then carefully notes that Jesus raises his eyes, not to look toward heaven again in prayer, but he raises his eyes to look directly at his disciples, to share the message of blessings and woes. This scene echoes Moses coming down from the mountain to give Israel its command as to how they should live in God’s covenant. As followers of Jesus today, we are called to live out his mission to the world, while we also look beyond this world to trust in God, our only hope.

St. Mary's PCCW will be collecting old, unwanted jewelry to be donated to Crisis Aide of St. Louis.

The mission of Crisis Aide is to increase awareness, raise funds, and encourage others to fight against sex trafficking. Monarch Jewelry is a Christian ministry in connection with Crisis Aide, who creates jewelry and accessories from used, old or broken jewelry as a unique way to provide an opportunity for rescued women employment as they begin to re-build their lives after being enslaved. We have an opportunity to show love to our neighbor, just as Christ commanded by cleaning out our stash of unused jewelry. Bring your donation of jewelry to the church the month of February—the month that signifies LOVE and the PCCW will box it up and send it to Crisis Aide. Look for the table covered in red and the jewelry box for your donations in the church gathering area. If you would like more information about Crisis Aide or Monarch Jewelry contact: Monarchjewelry.org or www.crisisaide.org

Message from Your PCCW President:

Another year has begun, another year of uncertainty due to Covid but the St. Mary's PCCW keeps plugging along. I want to share with you some of the activities of the PCCW in 2020.

Even with Covid, the PCCW attempted to fulfill their mission of service to our parish, our community and the world. The PCCW offered opportunities to help others in need through donations to Lafayette House and Box of Joy. St. Mary's parishioners were extremely generous with their time, talent, and treasure and we are grateful for the support. The PCCW offered a variety of spiritual growth and learning opportunities through Bible Study, guest speakers, leading the Rosary, and the Prayer Warrior teams. We supported the parish with funeral dinners, hosting several receptions, gifts to the first Communion students, and a gift to Fr. Alexander on his ordination last year. We supported the JACS Auction and St. Mary's fall festival. Some of the funds have been used to re-stock the parish kitchen with aprons, knives and other small appliances. We even found time to just have fun together as families and ladies of the Catholic faith.

All these things are made possible through only two fund raising efforts: the Blue Envelope Campaign and the annual Turkey Dinner. February is "Blue Envelope: month and of course the turkey dinner is in November.

Please consider supporting the Blue Envelope Campaign, blue envelopes are in the pews and you may place them in the collection basket anytime this month. All donations are greatly appreciated and the funds will be used wisely.

God Bless our PCCW and all members of St. Mary's Parish

Patty Wheeler
