PREPARING FOR LENT

As we approach the season of Lent, Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians gives us a sneak peek of Easter, waiting for us on the other side: “Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?” Paul’s conclusion, telling us to remain steadfast and devoted to the Lord’s work, could serve as a Lenten motto. The reading from Sirach provides a series of adages regarding discipline of the tongue, and of our speech. Maybe not a bad Lenten practice to observe. Even Jesus in Luke’s Gospel gets into the act, encouraging a cleansing of the heart (“A clean heart create for me, God” we will sing in Psalm 51 during Lent), so that from the goodness of our heart we will bring good into the world. Of course, these insights from Sirach, Paul, and Luke serve us quite well year-round. What we truly do “in the Lord” is never done in vain.

IS THIS ON THE TEST?

Today’s reading from Sirach reminds us not to praise others before they speak, “for it is then that people are tested.” Jesus, in Luke’s Gospel, takes it a step further, reminding us that we are also known by the fruit borne in our lives. It doesn’t take long to think of a person or group of people who speak beautiful, praiseworthy words, and yet their lives are unfruitful, or their lives outright contradict their speech. This is the class of people we call “hypocrites,” and it’s clear in all the Gospels that Jesus has no time for them. Our speech does test us, but the test is really to demonstrate that there is a connection between what we say and how we live. Expressed another way, this is the age-old discussion about faith and works. A truly deep-rooted faith will bear fruit in the works, in the actions of our lives. As happens so often in discipleship, we are dealing with the both/and, not either/or.

TALKING HEARTS

As disciples who follow Jesus, we believe that we are following God’s very Word-made-Flesh. The theological term for this is In-carn-ation, the “in-flesh-made” second person of the Trinity. As followers of the Word, our words are truly important. Our hearts and mouths are wired together, as Jesus tells us today: “from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.” This is yet another echo of the wisdom of Sirach: “Speech discloses the bent of a person’s heart.” Eventually, our words—and the other actions of our lives—will convey what is truly in our hearts. Perhaps the ultimate test of our discipleship is not merely our words, or even our actions, but on a deeper level the test is whether or not others will find in us God’s word “in-flesh-made.” Our mission is to be the Word-made-flesh, in the flesh again in our own place and time.

Lenten Regulations

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. (The obligation of fasting ceases with the celebration on one's 59th birthday).
3. On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other smaller meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.

Lent Offers A Time For Growth

Many of us know our IQ (intelligence quotient), but what about our SQ (spiritual quotient)?

Lent is a good time to think about the quality of your spiritual life. Do you think about God often... or rarely? Do you pray often... or occasionally? How well do you know the Bible? The Commandments? The Beatitudes? The lives of biblical heroes and heroines?

During Lent, commit to spending more time in prayer. Also consider selecting a book of the Bible or a particular Bible character to study in-depth during this period.

Some people give up particular items or habits during Lent. If used wisely, this discipline can help you abandon things that have been interfering with your relationship with God.

Here are some opportunities offered by the parish to help you have a fruitful Lent:

Attend Daily Mass or at least one extra Mass a week

Wednesday, Thursday or Friday at 7:00 am
Tuesday at 5:15 pm
Friday at 8:30 am (school Mass)

Reconciliation

Saturday from 3:00-4:00 pm
Joplin Lenten Reconciliation Service
(to be announced)

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Thursdays—7:30 am until 7:00 pm
Fridays at 7:00 pm

During Lent, the Stations of the Cross will be prayed every Friday at 7:00 pm. This devotion is a wonderful family prayer that takes less than thirty minutes.

ST. MARY'S
PARISH COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC
WOMEN

St. Mary's PCCW will be collecting old, unwanted jewelry to be donated to Crisis Aide of St. Louis. The mission of Crisis Aide is to increase awareness, raise funds, and encourage others to fight against sex trafficking. Monarch Jewelry is a Christian ministry in connection with Crisis Aide, who creates jewelry and accessories from used, old or broken jewelry as a unique way to provide an opportunity for rescued women employment as they begin to re-build their lives after being enslaved. We have an opportunity to show love to our neighbor, just as Christ commanded by cleaning out our stash of unused jewelry. Bring your donation of jewelry to the church the month of February—the month that signifies LOVE and the PCCW will box it up and send it to Crisis Aide. Look for the table covered in red and the jewelry box for your donations in the church gathering area. If you would like more information about Crisis Aide or Monarch Jewelry contact: Monarchjewelry.org or www.crisisaide.org

Need a meal? McAuley Catholic and St. Peter's Middle School students prepare Mercy Meals for those in need. If you know someone who may need a meal or if you yourself need a meal, please contact the development office at development@jacss.org to make arrangements for a meal. Students have made a number of homemade meals for individuals and families in need.

JACS Auction Donations

The annual auction is scheduled for Saturday, April 30. And we are seeking items to include in baskets or as live auction items. Items include:

- * Kitchen and cooking items
- * Children's toys and books
- * Branson activities or timeshare
- * Movie night at home
- * Car care
- * Golfing related items
- * KC Chiefs, KC Royals and St. Louis Cardinals items
